Press Release

Jack Knight Developments are proud to announce that as of today Mr David Knight is joining the company as a Senior Designer. David, who is the son of the founder Jack Knight has had a distinguished career to date designing many of the products we supply today. Kevin Dempsey, Managing Director said 'this is truly excellent news, we are very pleased to welcome David as part of our team. David's reputation for design and innovation is second to none and we have many new and exciting projects for David to work on.'

David joins Jack Knight Developments at a particularly exciting time with many new products planned for release this year. David will be joining a team of two other designers and a new management team who are focused on providing the best solution for the automotive sector.
